DECK THE HALLS: The Lakers defeated the Warriors 115-113 in their Christmas Day matchup in San Francisco, winning their 25th game on the holiday and tying the Knicks for the most Christmas wins in NBA history. In his league-record 19th Christmas Day appearance, LeBron James reached his 11th win to break a tie with Dwyane Wade for most wins on the day in NBA history. James is now 11-8 on Christmas and is the NBA's all-time Christmas leader in games played (19), points scored (507) and field goals made (180). The last time the Lakers did not play on Christmas Day was 1998 when the owners' lockout of the players delayed the start of the NBA season until February.

FRESH FACES: The Los Angeles Lakers continue the season with two promising rookies, Dalton Knecht and Bronny James. Knecht, selected 17th overall, had a stellar senior season at Tennessee in 2023-24. He averaged 21.7 points, 4.9 rebounds and 1.8 assists in all 36 games. A First-Team All-American and SEC Player of the Year, Knecht lit up the court, scoring 40 points in a single game and ranking eighth in NCAA Division I in scoring last year. James, drafted with the 55th overall pick, appeared in 25 games as a freshman at USC and averaged 4.8 points, 2.8 rebounds and 2.1 assists. With Knecht's sharp-shooting reputation and James' playmaking skills and versatility, the Lakers added two exciting talents to their roster this past offseason.

REDICK'S NEW ROLE: JJ Redick was named the 29th head coach in franchise history June 20, 2024. After a standout 15-year NBA career and time as an ESPN analyst, Redick brings a fresh approach to the organization. Known for his sharpshooting—ranking 20th all-time in NBA history with 1,950 3-pointers made—his coaching philosophy focuses on purpose, collaboration, competitiveness and creativity. A two-time consensus first-team All-American and the 2006 Naismith Men's College Player of the Year at Duke, Redick is eager to continue to leverage his experience to foster a winning culture.

SHOWTIME IMMORTALIZED: Showtime Legends reunited in Springfield Oct. 13 as Michael Cooper was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Jerry West, who is now a three-time inductee as a player, Olympian and executive, was inducted posthumously. Cooper, a defensive anchor of the Lakers' '80s dynasty, was honored 34 years after his final NBA game. Cooper dedicated all 12 years of his NBA career to the Lakers, where his defensive ability defined the Showtime Lakers era. His skills contributed to the team's five NBA championships in the 1980s. An eight-time NBA All-Defensive player, Cooper earned First-Team All-Defensive honors five times and was named Defensive Player of the Year in 1987. The late Jerry West, who was already inducted into the Hall of Fame as a player in 1980 and as a member of the 1960 U.S. Olympic team in 2010, was honored with his third enshrinement, honoring his contributions as a coach and front-office executive with the Lakers, Grizzlies, Warriors and Clippers.

THE CALIFORNIA DESTINY: This season, the Lakers unveiled their City Edition uniform and court, presented by bibigo, Nov. 21. This season's City Edition uniform, dubbed "California Destiny," is inspired by the team's storied reputation as a franchise that does more than win. The Lakers win with style. The Lakers personality is front and center with "Lake Show" featured across the uniform chest for the first time in team history. The accompanying City Edition court features the uniform's gradient effect along its perimeter, 17 stars across the sideline and the official LA logo midcourt with "Lake Show" displayed at each baseline. It marks the first alternate court for the Lakers beyond last year's NBA Cup court developed by the NBA.

GOLD STANDARD: LeBron James made his return to the Olympic stage this summer in Paris, adding a new chapter to his already impressive legacies. James cemented his place in history as one of only three American men to compete in four Olympic Games and left Paris a three-time gold medal winner.

HOMETOWN HERO: Also representing the Lakers at the 2024 Olympics was forward Rui Hachimura with Team Japan, marking another milestone in his journey as a trailblazer for Japanese basketball. Although Japan did not medal, Hachimura's leadership solidified his role as a key figure for his country. With the 2028 Olympics set to be held in Los Angeles, Hachimura looks ahead to an opportunity where his two worlds—Japan and the Lakers—come together on the biggest stage.

CAREER:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Signed with the Lakers Sept. 6, 2023</li> <li>Appeared in 339 career games (140 starts) for Los Angeles, Dallas, Houston, Detroit, New Orleans, Milwaukee, Charlotte and Philadelphia</li> <li>Shot 51.4 percent from the field and 37.2 percent from 3-point range across eight NBA seasons</li> </ul>

JJ Redick is in his first season as head coach of the Los Angeles Lakers. The 40-year-old was hired on June 20, 2024, as the 29th head coach in Lakers history and the 25th of the Los Angeles era.

It marks Redick’s first coaching role following an impressive 15-year NBA playing career. From 2006-21, the former guard appeared in 940 career regular season games (488 starts) suiting up for Dallas, New Orleans, Philadelphia, LA Clippers, Milwaukee and Orlando. Overall, Redick averaged 12.8 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists in 25.5 minutes per game. Known for his shooting prowess, Redick was a career 41.5-percent shooter from long distance and his 1,950 made 3-pointers still stand 20th all-time in NBA history.

In his 15 NBA seasons, Redick was part of 14 teams that advanced to the playoffs. In 110 postseason games (70 starts), he averaged 10.9 points, 1.6 rebounds and 1.6 assists with the Magic, Bucks, Clippers and 76ers.

Quickly following his retirement from the league Sept. 21, 2021, Redick was hired by ESPN as a game analyst and was eventually promoted to the network’s lead broadcast team by the end of the 2023-24 season. In June of 2024, Redick called the NBA Finals alongside colleagues Mike Breen and Doris Burke. Redick is a co-founder of ThreeFourTwo Productions where he co-hosted two popular podcasts, including “Mind the Game,” alongside Lakers star LeBron James as well as “The Old Man and the Three.”

Selected No. 11 overall in the 2006 NBA Draft by the Magic, Redick played four collegiate seasons (2002-06) for Duke University, averaging 19.9 points, 2.7 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.1 steals in 34.0 minutes over 139 games for the Blue Devils. Redick was a two-time consensus first-team All-American and was named the 2006 Naismith Men’s College Player of the Year. Redick, who remains the school’s all-time leading scorer, had his No. 4 jersey retired Feb. 4, 2007. The university also announced that Redick will be inducted into the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame in 2024. Redick chose Duke after a standout career at Cave Spring High School in Roanoke, Va., where he was a McDonald’s All-American as a senior.

Redick and his wife, Chelsea, have two sons, Knox and Kai.
