CITY EDITION UNIFORM & COURT

LOS ANGELES LAKERS

2024-25 CITY EDITION

THE CONCEPT:
THE CALIFORNIA
DESTINY

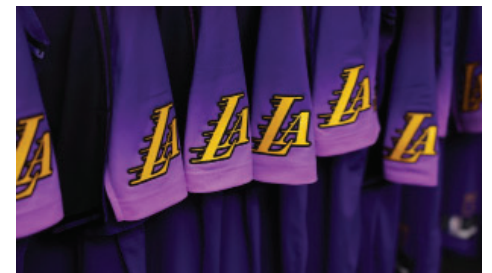

The Los Angeles Lakers will debut a City Edition uniform and court at their matchup versus Orlando Nov. 21, highlighting the team's long-standing reputation in Los Angeles and what the purple and gold was destined to become. Lakers basketball is moving and engaging. It's the combination of elite basketball IQ and electrifying presentation.

At the Lakers, basketball is not just a game. It's a show. The Lake Show.

This story builds on last season's City Edition uniform that was inspired by the team's arrival in Los Angeles. Last year's uniform design, borrowing the Los Angeles Lakers triangle wordmark from the early 1960's, highlighted the California dream and opportunity ahead for the team's evolving identity. It was about hustle and proving to people that the team was worthy of their fandom.

After 65 years in LA, the Lakers have endured. They've embraced their role in Los Angeles and given the city a show unlike any other. The Los Angeles Lakers made their dreams their destiny.

CALIFORNIA DESTINY
DETAILS:

LAKE SHOW is across the front chest. This is the first time something other than Lakers or a city has been represented on

LAKE SHOW

SATIN-TWILL GOLD bordering the numbers is reminiscent of the arena lights that shine the stage.

PURPLE TAPE lining the uniform creates a reflective effect, honoring the team as a reflection of LA. Each uniform taping is unique, which nods to the different attributes everyone brings to the team.

REFLECTED GRADIENT from black to purple represents the team's 65-year evolution in Los Angeles.

THE PATH TO VICTORY: The Lakers took home the inaugural NBA Cup in 2023, blazing through their competition with a perfect 7-0 record in tournament play. Los Angeles competed in Western Group A as part of the NBA's first-ever In-Season Tournament, a group that consists of the Memphis Grizzlies, Phoenix Suns, Utah Jazz and Portland Trail Blazers. Each team played four designated Group Play games – one game against each opponent in its group, with two games at home and two on the road.

Game 1: The Lakers squared off against the Phoenix Suns on Friday, Nov. 10, at Footprint Center for Los Angeles' first game of the In-Season Tournament Group Play, and the purple and gold came out victorious, 122-119. LeBron James led the way with a team-high 32 points (11-17 FG, 3-4 3FG, 7-11 FT) to go with 11 rebounds, six assists, one steal and one block in 36 minutes, while Anthony Davis also recorded a double-double, his sixth of the season, with 18 points (5-14 FG, 8-8 FT), 11 rebounds, four assists and one block in 36 minutes. Cam Reddish, starting in place of Austin Reaves, hit five triples and dropped 17 points to give LA the spark they needed and snap their three-game losing streak.

Game 2: The Lakers improved to 2-0 in the In-Season Tournament Group Play stage following a 134-107 victory over the Memphis Grizzlies at Crypto.com Arena on Tuesday, Nov. 14. Los Angeles had their highest-scoring game of the season as seven players scored in double figures. D'Angelo Russell led the way for the Lakers, scoring 24 points (8-12 FG, 6-8 3FG, 2-3 FT) in 27 minutes. Rui Hachimura added 23 points (8-10 FG, 3-3 3FG, 4-4 FT), playing 24 minutes after coming off the bench. Austin Reaves recorded a double-double scoring 16 points (5-9 FG, 4-4 3FG, 2-3 FT) to go along with 12 rebounds. Anthony Davis also recorded a double-double, his eighth of the season, as he dropped 19 points (7-11 FG, 5-6 FT) and grabbed 11 boards. LeBron James made his return after missing a game due to a left calf contusion and scored 16 points (6-11 FG, 3-6 3FG), grabbed nine rebounds and dished out six assists in 23 minutes. Santi Aldama paced the Grizzlies with 24 points (9-15 FG, 3-8 3FG), but it was not enough to keep up with the sharp-shooting Lakers, whose 22 3-pointers tied the franchise record (Feb. 7, 2019 at Boston).

Game 3: In the Lakers' third game of In-Season Tournament Group Play, Los Angeles took down the Trail Blazers, 107-95, in Portland to improve to a perfect 3-0 record. The purple and gold took the lead from the jump and never trailed in the game in large part due to LeBron James' monstrous performance, recording 35 points (13-22 FG, 5-9 3FG, 4-6 FT), five rebounds, nine assists and two steals in 35 minutes. Anthony Davis (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Christian Wood (10 points, 10 rebounds) complimented James' performance with double-doubles, and the Lakers remained undefeated in Group Play. Jerami Grant paced the Blazers with 24 points (8-20 FG, 4-9 3FG, 4-4 FT), four rebounds, three assists and one steal in 40 minutes of play.

Game 4: The Lakers had their biggest win of the season and clinched a spot in the In-Season Tournament Quarterfinals with a perfect 4-0 record thanks to a 131-99 victory over the Utah Jazz. Anthony Davis led the way for L.A., recording his 11th double-double of the season with 26 points (11-14 FG, 4-4 FT) and 16 rebounds. Davis tallied his double-double in the first half (17 PTS, 10 REB), marking the 21st time in his career he has accomplished the feat in the first half. Six other Lakers scored in double figures including D'Angelo Russell (20 PTS), LeBron James (17 PTS), and Austin Reaves (19 PTS). Omer Yurtseven led the way for Utah as he had 18 points (8-11 FG) off the bench. The purple and gold improved to 9-6 on the season and will host the Dallas Mavericks tomorrow night on the second night of a back-to-back.

Game 5 (Quarterfinals): The Lakers took down the Phoenix Suns, 106-103, to advance to the In-Season Tournament Semifinals in Las Vegas. L.A. led by as many 15 points in the first half, but Phoenix came storming back; there were 14 lead changes in game with it all coming down to the final seconds, but the purple and gold squeaked out the victory to remain undefeated in the IST with a perfect 5-0 record. LeBron James recorded a double-double, his sixth of the season, with 31 points (12-25 FG, 2-4 3FG, 5-6 FT) to go along with 11 assists. Anthony Davis tallied his 18th double-double with 27 points (10-26 FG, 7-8 FT) and 15 boards. Austin Reaves added 20 points (7-16 FG, 3-8 3FG), including a clutch 3-pointer with 15.3 seconds remaining to put the Lakers up by four. Kevin Durant led the Suns with 31 points (12-17 FG, 4-7 3FG), but it was not enough for Phoenix as they were knocked out of the IST.

Game 6 (Semifinals): In a highly anticipated semifinals matchup of the NBA's first-ever In-Season Tournament in Las Vegas, the Lakers took down the New Orleans Pelicans, 133-89. The 44-point differential is the largest win of the season for the purple and gold and led by none other than LeBron James, who posted 30 points (9-12 FG, 4-4 3FG, 8-8 FT) to go with five rebounds and eight assists in 23 minutes. Anthony Davis recorded his 19th double-double of the season with 16 points and 15 rebounds and was one of six Lakers players who scored in double figures, including Taurean Prince who recorded 15 points with five 3-pointers made on eight attempts. L.A. outscored New Orleans 43-17 in the third quarter, the most scored and least allowed in the third frame all season by the Lakers, and the Lakers advanced to the In-Season Tournament Championship game.

Game 7 (Finals): The Lakers became the first-ever NBA In-Season Tournament Champions as they took down the Indiana Pacers, 123-109, on Saturday, Dec. 9, at T-Mobile Arena in Las Vegas. Anthony Davis led the way for the purple and gold with a dominant double-double performance of 41 points (16-24 FG, 9-13 FT) and 20 rebounds in 41 minutes. LeBron James, voted after the game as the In-Season Tournament's Most Valuable Player, put up 24 points (10-21 FG, 4-5 FT), grabbed 11 boards and added four assists and two steals in 35 minutes as he and Davis were both named to the NBA's All-Tournament Team after the game. Austin Reaves led the bench unit with a season-high 28 points (9-15 FG, 10-12 FT), and the Lakers took home the In-Season Tournament trophy with a perfect 7-0 record in tournament play. Stats recorded in this game did not count towards regular season or postseason stats.

1500 AND COUNTING: On Nov. 6 in Memphis, LeBron James achieved a major milestone in his legendary career, becoming the 6th player in NBA history to play 1,500 regular season games. In his 1,500th game of his career, the 39-year-old forward notched a game-high 39 points (15-24 FG, 6-11 3FG, 3-4 FT), seven rebounds, six assists and one steal in 35 minutes. The 39-point output is tied for the fifth most in an NBA game by a 39-year-old. With his 1,500th game in the books, James then moved on to surpassing John Stockton (1,504) to move into 5th place on the NBA's all-time list for regular season games played with his appearance at New Orleans on Nov. 16.

DAVIS DOMINANCE: Anthony Davis has been on a tear to start the 2024-25 season, averaging 30.7 points (.567 FG%, .414 3FG%, .784 FT%), 11.4 rebounds, 2.8 assists, 1.3 steals, and 1.8 blocks through his first 13 games. He's scored 20+ points in eight games, 30+ in five and dropped a season-high 40 points (14-26 FG, 2-4 3FG, 10-12 FT) with 12 rebounds, two assists, and two blocks on Nov. 15 at San Antonio. Davis also recorded his 100th career 25-point, 15-rebound game on Oct. 22 against Minnesota. On Nov. 13, he became the 80th player in NBA history to score 18,000 points and the 12th to reach 18,000 points, 7,000 rebounds, and 1,500 blocks. The next day, he moved into 9th place on the Lakers' all-time blocks list, passing Pau Gasol. Davis also joined Kobe Bryant, Elgin Baylor, and Jerry West as the only Lakers to start a season with three straight 30-point games and was named Western Conference Player of the Week (10/22-10/27). Davis currently ranks second in the NBA in points per game (31.1), seventh in blocks (2.0), and eighth in rebounds (11.2), while leading the league in free throws made (103).

A-DPOY: Anthony Davis is off to what could be his most dominant season yet, cementing his place as one of the league's top defensive players. Through 13 games, he's averaging 1.3 steals and 1.8 blocks, solidifying his spot in the Defensive Player of the Year conversation. Last season, Davis played in 76 games, averaging 24.7 points, 12.6 rebounds, and 2.3 blocks while shooting 55.6% from the field. He earned All-Defensive First Team honors and was named to the All-NBA Second Team, ranking third in rebounds and fourth in blocks across the league. In the playoffs, Davis raised his level, averaging 27.8 points and 15.6 rebounds in five games, with a double-double in each game, including a historic 25-point, 25-rebound performance and a season-high 41 points. As the 2024-25 season progresses, Davis is positioning himself as a strong MVP and Defensive Player of the Year candidate.

23'S 22: LeBron James is in the midst of his 22nd NBA season, continuing to break records and redefine longevity in the league. After becoming the first player to surpass 40,000 career points last season, James is currently averaging 23.5 points, 8.1 rebounds and 9.4 assists per game on 51.5% shooting. He's also third in the league in assists per game and has been a key playmaker for the Lakers this season, including becoming the oldest player in NBA history to average a triple-double during a 5-game win streak. James has been exceptional in recent games, recording his fourth consecutive triple-double, the most in a row in his 22-year career, during the Lakers' 120-115 win over San Antonio on Nov. 15. He also became the third Laker to record four straight triple-doubles and surpassed John Stockton (1,504) for fifth place on the NBA's all-time list for regular season games played during the Nov. 16 win over New Orleans. Additionally, James eclipsed 57,000 career regular season minutes against San Antonio and is now just 389 minutes away from surpassing Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (57,446) for most regular season minutes played in NBA history. James continues to set milestones, with his fourth straight triple-double against San Antonio marking the most in a row in his career, while his stellar performance during the Lakers' 5-game win streak has made him the oldest player in NBA history to average a triple-double during such a stretch.

REAVES RESURGENCE: Austin Reaves starts the season poised for a breakout year, with a specific emphasis on enhancing his on-ball skills and unlocking his defensive potential. Coming off a strong summer of development, Coach Redick is committed to adding new dimensions to Reaves' game. Already known for his offensive expertise, Reaves has also shown glimpses of becoming a disruptive defensive presence. With the coaching staff pushing him to elevate on both ends of the floor, Reaves is ready to embrace a larger role and establish himself as a double-edged force for the Lakers.

D'LOADING: After surpassing Nick Van Exel's record of 183 3-pointers from the 1994-95 season, Russell established a new franchise record for the most 3-pointers made in a single season for the Lakers in 2023-24. He is only the third player in NBA history to make 200+ 3-pointers (226 3PM), dish 400+ assists (482 AST) and shoot 40 percent (41.5% 3FG) or better from beyond the arc, joining Stephen Curry and Damian Lillard. With focused preparation this summer and strong communication with the coaching staff, all signs point to Russell elevating his game to the next level.

MAX-IMIZED POTENTIAL: The Lakers re-signed guard Max Christie July 6. In the 2023-24 season, the 21-year-old guard appeared in 67 games (seven starts) for the team, averaging 4.2 points (42.7 FG%, 35.6 3P%, 78.3 FT%) and 2.1 rebounds in 14.1 minutes. He had seven double-digit scoring games, including two with career-highs of 14 points. Under new head coach JJ Redick, he's expected to take on a bigger role, complementing LeBron James and Anthony Davis as a 3-and-D guard. This offseason, Christie emphasized the importance of confidence and mental focus in his development.

KNECHT 4: The Los Angeles Lakers selected Dalton Knecht with the 17th pick in the 2024 NBA Draft after a stellar season at Tennessee, where he earned Consensus All-America First Team honors, averaging 21.7 points, 4.9 rebounds, and 1.8 assists. Knecht made an immediate impact in the Lakers' Oct. 17 preseason game, scoring 35 points with 7 rebounds and 2 steals in a win over Phoenix. He scored 20 straight points in overtime, becoming the first Lakers rookie since 1996-97 to score 30+ points in a preseason game. Through his first 13 NBA games, Knecht is averaging 11.3 points, 2.5 rebounds, 1.1 assists and 2.3 three-pointers per game on .523/.464/.923 shooting in 21.5 minutes. He posted 19 points in a win over Memphis, followed by 14 points in a victory over San Antonio. Knecht's breakout came at New Orleans, where he scored 27 points, 7 rebounds, and 2 steals. Knecht followed up that performance by scoring a career-high 37 points on 9-12 shooting from deep versus Utah. When playing 20+ minutes, he's averaging 18.3 points and 3.7 threes per game.

REDICK'S NEW ROLE: The energy around the Los Angeles Lakers is buzzing as Head Coach JJ Redick embarks on his first season at the helm, having been named the 29th head coach in franchise history on June 20, 2024. After a standout 15-year NBA career and time as an ESPN analyst, Redick is bringing a fresh approach to the team. Known for his sharpshooting—ranking 20th all-time in NBA history with 1,950 made three-pointers—his coaching philosophy focuses on purpose, collaboration, competitiveness, and creativity. A two-time consensus first-team All-American and the 2006 Naismith Men's College Player of the Year at Duke, Redick is eager to leverage his experience to inspire the Lakers and establish a winning culture. Redick's early results are proving the decision to be a stroke of brilliance. 13 games into the 2024-25 season, the Lakers are off to a strong 9-4 start, including a perfect 6-0 record at home, with a respectable 3-4 mark on the road. Redick's system emphasizes both on-ball and off-ball movement, and early returns show a team that's not only meeting but exceeding expectations. Though the sample size is still small, Redick has already passed key tests, earning top marks for his ability to lead through adversity and set the foundation for a sustainable, successful future.

LAKERS LATEST

HOME COURT HEAT: The Lakers are off to a hot start at home this season, holding a perfect 7-0 record at Crypto.com Arena. Their strong home performance is highlighted by the team averaging 122.1 points per game and shooting 51.0 percent from the field. The Lakers will look to continue their home-court dominance when they face Orlando at home Thursday, Nov. 21.

FOCUSED JOY: Coach JJ Redick describes the atmosphere in the gym as “focused joy” – a blend of energy, intention and organization that sets a strong tone for this season. The team’s confidence is high, but the players remain committed to growth, knowing the work is never done. Redick started the year with a starting lineup with proven success from the season before with the Lakers’ starting lineup, Russell, Reaves, James, Hachimura and Davis, renowned for its size and versatility, which finished last season with an impressive 18-6 record.

FRESH FACES: The Los Angeles Lakers begin the new season with two promising rookies, Dalton Knecht and Bronny James. Knecht, selected 17th overall, had a stellar season at Tennessee in 2023-24. He averaged 21.7 points, 4.9 rebounds and 1.8 assists in all 36 games. A First-Team All-American and SEC Player of the Year, Knecht lit up the court, scoring 40 points in a single game and ranking eighth in NCAA Division I in scoring last year. James, drafted with the 55th overall pick, had a solid freshman year at USC, appearing in 25 games with an average of 4.8 points, 2.8 rebounds and 2.1 assists. He showcased his potential with a season-high 15 points against Oregon State and recorded seven assists in a standout performance against Oregon. With James’s play-making skills and Knecht’s sharp shooting, the Lakers have added two exciting talents to their roster, promising a bright future for the franchise.

SUSTAINED LAKERS EXCELLENCE: The Lakers are prioritizing continuity this season, emphasizing the belief that stability within their roster will drive success. After reaching the Western Conference Finals last year, Vice President of Basketball Operations and General Manager Rob Pelinka and new Head Coach JJ Redick are confident in their offseason. Offseason moves include: JJ Redick being hired as head coach, LeBron James and Max Christie re-signing, D’Angelo Russell, Jaxson Hayes and Cam Reddish opting in, drafting Dalton Knecht and Bronny James and signing Christian Koloko, Quincy Olivari and Armel Traore to two-way contracts.

NBA CUP COURT: As part of this year’s Emirates NBA Cup, the Los Angeles Lakers will take the floor on a fully-painted, custom-designed court that celebrates the second year of the dynamic competition. All 30 NBA teams will debut personalized, unique courts, designed by renowned artist Victor Solomon to showcase a leaguewide, distinctive scheme. These courts will feature during Group Play and the Quarterfinal rounds with vibrant designs contrasting with the home team’s Nike NBA Statement Edition uniforms, while road teams wear Nike NBA Association Edition uniforms. This bold new design will bring Lakers fans closer to the energy and competition of the Emirates NBA Cup creating a visually electric experience for both players and fans.

REMEMBERING THE LOGO: The Lakers debuted a tribute to the man who defined what it meant to be Lakers excellence, with a commemorative No. 44 band on the left shoulder of their uniforms. The band will be worn throughout the season, marking a new era while honoring the past. To honor Jerry West’s immense contributions to the franchise as both a player and executive across three decades, Oct. 22’s opening night was a memorable celebration of West’s legacy and the impact he has had on the organization.

PRESEASON PREP: The Los Angeles Lakers finished off the 2024-25 preseason with a 2-4 record. The Lakers’ preseason tipped off Friday, Oct. 4, at Acrisure Arena in Palm Desert, Calif., against the Minnesota Timberwolves, falling 124-107. Next up, the Lakers took on the Phoenix Suns Oct. 6, a Pacific Division foe, falling 118-114. The Lakers have a rich history in the Coachella Valley, a favored retreat for Dr. Jerry Buss. In the 80s and 90s, the team often held training camp at the College of the Desert, using this time for rigorous two-a-day practices to ensure players were in peak condition for the season ahead. Following Palm Springs, the Lakers’ preseason continued with a matchup against the Milwaukee Bucks on Oct. 10 at Fiserv Forum in Milwaukee where the Lakers came out victorious for their first win of the preseason, 107-102. Next, Los Angeles took on the Golden State Warriors Oct. 15 at T-Mobile Arena in Las Vegas, with the Warriors coming away with a 111-97 victory. Following Vegas, the Lakers traveled to face the Phoenix Suns Oct. 17 at Footprint Center, defeating the Suns 128-122 in overtime. The 2024 preseason came to a close with a final preseason showdown versus the Warriors Oct. 18 at Chase Center in San Francisco, with the Lakers falling to the Warriors 132-74.

LAKERS LATEST

SHOWTIME IMMORTALIZED: The Showtime Legends reunited in Springfield Oct. 13 as Michael Cooper was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Jerry West, who is now a three-time inductee as a player, Olympian and executive, was inducted posthumously. Cooper, a defensive anchor of the Lakers' '80s dynasty, was honored 34 years after his final NBA game. Cooper dedicated all 12 years of his NBA career to the Lakers, where his defensive ability defined the Showtime Lakers era. His skills contributed to the team's five NBA championships in the 1980s. An eight-time NBA All-Defensive player, Cooper earned First-Team honors five times and was named Defensive Player of the Year in 1987. The Hall of Fame ceremony was a celebration of legacy and family, with chants of "Cooooop!" echoing throughout the crowd. The late Jerry West, who was already inducted into the Hall of Fame as a player in 1980 and as a member of the 1960 U.S. Olympic team in 2010, was honored with his third enshrinement, honoring his contributions as a coach and front-office executive with the Lakers, Grizzlies, Warriors and Clippers. Cooper will have his No. 21 jersey retired on Jan. 13 at Crypto.com Arena.

GOLD STANDARD: LeBron James and Anthony Davis made their returns to the Olympic stage this summer in Paris, adding new layers to their already impressive legacies. James, now a four-time Olympian, cemented his place in history as one of only three American men to compete in four games. He heads into his unprecedented 22nd season as a three-time gold medalist. Davis, in his second Olympic appearance, showcased his world-class defense, leading Team USA in blocks with 1.5 blocks per game in 16.6 minutes and playing a crucial role in bringing home the gold. On the way to USA Men's Basketball's 17th gold medal and AD's second, the Brow had four blocks, the most in a gold medal game since 1984, when blocked shots began being kept as an official statistic at the Olympics. Both players now shift their focus back to the Lakers, ready to bring the same leadership and drive to the upcoming NBA season.

HOMETOWN HERO: This summer, Rui Hachimura joined Team Japan at the Olympics with a renewed spirit after his second season with the Los Angeles Lakers, marking another milestone in his journey as a trailblazer for Japanese basketball. After leading Japan's team through the unprecedented challenges of the Tokyo Games in 2021, his performance this summer in Paris carried deeper meaning, energized by the presence of fans and heightened global expectations. Although Japan did not medal, Hachimura's leadership solidified his role as a key figure for his country. With the 2028 Olympics set to be held in Los Angeles, Hachimura looks ahead to an opportunity where his two worlds—Japan and the Lakers—can come together on the biggest stage.

THE CALIFORNIA DESTINY: This season, the Lakers will unveil their City Edition uniform and court, presented by bibigo. "Lake Show", where LA culture meets Lakers Basketball, will be on exhibition later this season. Both the uniform and court, their first ever City Edition court, will debut in arena Nov. 21, versus the Orlando Magic.

HEAD COACH JJ REDICK

JJ Redick enters his first season as head coach of the Los Angeles Lakers. The 40-year-old was hired on June 20, 2024, as the 29th head coach in Lakers history and the 25th of the Los Angeles era.

It marks Redick’s first coaching role following an impressive 15-year NBA playing career. From 2006-21, the former guard appeared in 940 career regular season games (488 starts) suiting up for Dallas, New Orleans, Philadelphia, LA Clippers, Milwaukee and Orlando. Overall, Redick averaged 12.8 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists in 25.5 minutes per game. Known for his shooting prowess, Redick was a career 41.5-percent shooter from long distance and his 1,950 made 3-pointers still stand 20th all-time in NBA history.

In his 15 NBA seasons, Redick was part of 14 teams that advanced to the playoffs. In 110 postseason games (70 starts), he averaged 10.9 points, 1.6 rebounds and 1.6 assists with the Magic, Bucks, Clippers and 76ers.

Quickly following his retirement from the league Sept. 21, 2021, Redick was hired by ESPN as a game analyst and was eventually promoted to the network’s lead broadcast team by the end of the 2023-24 season. In June of 2024, Redick called the NBA Finals alongside colleagues Mike Breen and Doris Burke. Redick is a co-founder of ThreeFourTwo Productions where he co-hosted two popular podcasts, including “Mind the Game,” alongside Lakers star LeBron James as well as “The Old Man and the Three.”

Selected No. 11 overall in the 2006 NBA Draft by the Magic, Redick played four collegiate seasons (2002-06) for Duke University, averaging 19.9 points, 2.7 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.1 steals in 34.0 minutes over 139 games for the Blue Devils. Redick was a two-time consensus first-team All-American and was named the 2006 Naismith Men’s College Player of the Year. Redick, who remains the school’s all-time leading scorer, had his No. 4 jersey retired Feb. 4, 2007. The university also announced that Redick will be inducted into the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame in 2024. Redick chose Duke after a standout career at Cave Spring High School in Roanoke, Va., where he was a McDonald’s All-American as a senior.

Redick and his wife, Chelsea, have two sons, Knox and Kai.
