IF THE NETS WIN...

- It would extend the Nets franchise-best start against the Western Conference this season, improving to 7-1 overall and 6-0 on the road.
 - Brooklyn had never been 4-0 or better to start on the road against the Western Conference prior to its current 5-0 start this season.
 - See the chart for a look at the Nets' best starts against the West overall (left) and on the road (right) – via Elias. ----- >
 - See the following pages for more on the Nets' success against the West this season.
- It would give the Nets a 3-0 record against the Grizzlies this season, including a pair of wins at FedExForum.
 - Tonight marks the first time the Nets have played more than two games in the regular season against a Western Conference opponent since the 1978-79 season, when they played all 11 West teams at least three times (and did so for the Nets' first three NBA seasons – 1976-79). Two East teams played three games against the West last season – Detroit (three vs. Memphis) and Chicago (three vs. San Antonio) – via Elias.
 - It would also mark the Nets fifth win in its last six meetings with the Grizzlies, dating back to the 2022-23 season.
 - A win would mark the Nets' third-straight victory at Memphis, matching their longest road winning streak against the Grizzlies all time (done twice – last 3/6/17 – 1/4/19).

JORDI FERNÁNDEZ

Head coach

Jordi Fernández was named the head coach of the Brooklyn Nets on April 22, 2024, and he begins his first season at the helm in Brooklyn.

Fernández joins the Nets after spending the last two seasons (2022-24) as associate head coach of the Sacramento Kings. In 2022-23, he helped lead the Kings to the 2023 Pacific Division title and the No. 3 seed in the Western Conference in Sacramento's first postseason appearance since the 2005-06 season. The Badalona, Spain, native also currently serves as the head coach of Canada's Senior Men's National Team, a position he has held since June 2023. Last summer, he led Canada to a bronze medal at the 2023 FIBA Basketball World Cup, representing Canada's first-ever medal in the event. Under Fernández's direction, Canada registered an overall record of 6-2, including a win over Team USA for third place.

Prior to joining the Kings, Fernández spent six seasons (2016-22) as an assistant coach with the Denver Nuggets. The Nuggets made four consecutive playoff appearances (2019-22) during Fernández's time in Denver, including a trip to the Western Conference Finals in 2020. He previously served two seasons (2014-16) as head coach of the Canton Charge in the NBA G League after spending four seasons (2009-13) as a player development coach with the Cleveland Cavaliers and one season (2013-14) as Canton's lead assistant coach. While at the helm in Canton, Fernández led the Charge to a 62-38 regular season record and consecutive appearances in the NBA G League Eastern Conference Finals.

Fernández has also held a number of other coaching roles on the global stage, including serving as the lead assistant for the Nigerian National Team at the 2020 Olympics and the Spanish National Team at both EuroBasket 2017 and the 2013 FIBA U19 World Championships in Prague. He has also spent time coaching for Club Basquet L'Hospitalet in Spain and as a player development coach with Impact Basketball in Las Vegas.
