Taylor Jenkins enters his sixth season as head coach of the Memphis Grizzlies after being named to the position on June 11, 2019.

During his time in Memphis, Jenkins has guided the Grizzlies to two 50-win campaigns and three playoff appearances. He finished second in the voting for the 2021-22 NBA Coach of the Year award after leading the Grizzlies to a franchise-record tying 56-26 record and clinching the first Southwest Division title in franchise history. The team also captured the division title during the 2022-23 season. He has received three Western Conference Coach of the Month awards (January 2020, December 2021, March/April 2023).

Memphis has established a new franchise record for scoring average four times in Jenkins' five seasons on the sidelines and has posted four of the NBA's six highest paint scoring averages since the NBA began tracking data in 1996-97. The Grizzlies became the first team in NBA history to lead the league in rebounds, steals and blocks during the 2021-22 season and also paced the league in offensive rebounds, points in the paint, second chance points and fast break points that season.

The Grizzlies qualified for the inaugural NBA Play-In Game in 2020 with one of the league's youngest rosters and advanced to the 2021 NBA Playoffs after winning two games in the 2021 NBA Play-In Tournament.

Jenkins joined the Grizzlies after serving the 2018-19 season with the Milwaukee Bucks as an assistant coach under two-time NBA Coach of the Year Mike Budenholzer. Jenkins helped coach the Bucks to the NBA's best regular season record (60-22), a trip to the 2019 Eastern Conference Finals and the league's highest-scoring offense (118.1 points). He was an assistant coach for Team Giannis in the 2019 NBA All-Star Game.

Before his time with the Bucks, Jenkins spent five seasons (2013-18) as an assistant coach under Budenholzer with the Atlanta Hawks, where he helped coach the team to four postseason appearances, including the 2015 Eastern Conference Finals. He was an assistant coach for the 2015 NBA Eastern Conference All-Star Team.

Jenkins' previous experience includes one season (2012-13) as head coach of the Austin Toros (now Spurs), the NBA G League affiliate of the San Antonio Spurs, where he led the team to the NBA G League Playoffs. Jenkins spent four seasons (2008-12) as an assistant coach with the Toros, working under head coaches Quin Snyder and Brad Jones, and was a member of the club's 2012 championship team and playoff runs in 2009 and 2010. He interned with San Antonio's basketball operations department during the 2007-08 season.

Jenkins attended The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics while concentrating in Management and minoring in Psychology. He and his wife, Chantall, have three sons and one daughter.
