THE PATH TO VICTORY: The Lakers took home the inaugural NBA Cup in 2023, blazing through their competition with a perfect 7-0 record in tournament play. Los Angeles competed in Western Group A as part of the NBA's first-ever In-Season Tournament, a group that consists of the Memphis Grizzlies, Phoenix Suns, Utah Jazz and Portland Trail Blazers. Each team played four designated Group Play games – one game against each opponent in its group, with two games at home and two on the road.

Game 1: The Lakers squared off against the Phoenix Suns Friday, Nov. 10, at Footprint Center for Los Angeles' first game of the NBA Cup Group Play, and the Purple and Gold came out victorious 122-119. LeBron James led the way with a team-high 32 points (11-17 FG, 3-4 3FG, 7-11 FT) to go with 11 rebounds, six assists, one steal and one block in 36 minutes, while Anthony Davis also recorded a double-double, his sixth of the season, with 18 points (5-14 FG, 8-8 FT), 11 rebounds, four assists and one block in 36 minutes. Cam Reddish, starting in place of Austin Reaves, hit five triples and dropped 17 points to give LA the spark they needed and snap their three-game losing streak.

Game 2: The Lakers improved to 2-0 in NBA Cup Group Play stage following a 134-107 victory over the Memphis Grizzlies at Crypto.com Arena on Tuesday, Nov. 14. Los Angeles had their highest-scoring game of the season as seven players scored in double figures. LeBron James made his return after missing a game due to a left calf contusion and scored 16 points (6-11 FG, 3-6 3FG), grabbed nine rebounds and dished out six assists in 23 minutes. Santi Aldama paced the Grizzlies with 24 points (9-15 FG, 3-8 3FG), but it was not enough to keep up with the sharp-shooting Lakers, whose 22 3-pointers tied the franchise record (Feb. 7, 2019 at Boston).

Game 3: In the Lakers' third game of the NBA Cup Group Play, Los Angeles took down the Trail Blazers, 107-95, in Portland to improve to a perfect 3-0 record. Anthony Davis (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Christian Wood (10 points, 10 rebounds) complimented James' performance with double-doubles, and the Lakers remained undefeated in Group Play. Game 5 (Quarterfinals): The Lakers took down the Phoenix Suns, 106-103, to advance to the NBA Cup Semifinals in Las Vegas. LA led by as many 15 points in the first half, but Phoenix came storming back; there were 14 lead changes in game with it all coming down to the final seconds, but the Purple and Gold squeaked out the victory to remain undefeated in the IST with a perfect 5-0 record. LeBron James recorded a double-double, his sixth of the season, with 31 points (12-25 FG, 2-4 3FG, 5-6 FT) to go along with 11 assists. Anthony Davis tallied his 18th double-double with 27 points (10-26 FG, 7-8 FT) and 15 boards. Kevin Durant led the Suns with 31 points (12-17 FG, 4-7 3FG), but it was not enough for Phoenix as they were knocked out of the IST.

Game 6 (Semifinals): In a highly anticipated semifinals matchup of the NBA's first-ever NBA Cup in Las Vegas, the Lakers took down the New Orleans Pelicans, 133-89. The 44-point differential is the largest win of the season for the Purple and Gold and led by none other than LeBron James, who posted 30 points (9-12 FG, 4-4 3FG, 8-8 FT) to go with five rebounds and eight assists in 23 minutes. Anthony Davis recorded his 19th double-double of the season with 16 points and 15 rebounds and was one of six Lakers players who scored in double figures, including Taurian Prince who recorded 15 points with five 3-pointers made on eight attempts. The 39-point output is tied for the fifth most in an NBA game by a 39-year-old. With his 1,500th game in the books, James went on to surpass John Stockton (1,504) into 5th place on the NBA's all-time list for regular season games played with his appearance at New Orleans Nov. 16.

DAVIS DOMINANCE: Anthony Davis has been on a tear to start the 2024-25 season, averaging 29.2 points (.555 FG%, .361 3FG%, .782 FT%), 11.5 rebounds, 3.2 assists, 1.3 steals and 1.9 blocks through his first 17 games. He's scored 20+ points in 10 games, 30+ in six and dropped a season-high 40 points (14-26 FG, 2-4 3FG, 10-12 FT) to go with 12 rebounds, two assists, and two blocks Nov. 15 at San Antonio. Davis also recorded his 100th career 25-point, 15-rebound game Oct. 22 versus Minnesota. Nov. 13, he became the 80th player in NBA history to score 18,000 points and the 12th player ever to reach 18,000 points, 7,000 rebounds and 1,500 blocks in a career. The next day, he moved into 9th place on the Lakers' all-time blocks list, passing Pau Gasol. Davis also joined Kobe Bryant, Elgin Baylor and Jerry West as the only Lakers to start a season with three straight 30-point games which earned him Western Conference Player of the Week (10/22-10/27). Davis currently ranks fifth in the NBA in points per game (29.2), seventh in rebounds (11.5) and fifth in blocks (1.9), while being tied for the league-lead in free throws made (129).

A-DPOY: Anthony Davis is off to what could be his most dominant season yet, cementing his place as one of the league's top defensive players. Through 15 games, he's averaging 1.3 steals and 1.9 blocks, solidifying his spot in the Defensive Player of the Year conversation. Last season, Davis played in 76 games, averaging 24.7 points, 12.6 rebounds, and 2.3 blocks while shooting 55.6% from the field. He earned All-Defensive First Team honors and was named to the All-NBA Second Team, ranking third in rebounds and fourth in blocks across the league. In the playoffs, Davis raised his level, averaging 27.8 points and 15.6 rebounds in five games, with a double-double in each game, including a historic 25-point, 25-rebound performance and a season-high 41 points. As the 2024-25 season progresses, Davis will continue to be discussed as one of the league's elite.

23'S 22: LeBron James is in the midst of his 22nd NBA season, continuing to break records and redefine longevity in the league. The first player to surpass 40,000 career points, James is currently averaging 22.9 points, 8.2 rebounds and 9.3 assists per game on 50.3% shooting. He ranks third in the league in assists per game and has been a key playmaker for the Lakers all season. James has been exceptional in recent games, recording his fourth consecutive triple-double, the most in a row in his 22-year career, during the Lakers' 120-115 win over San Antonio Nov. 15. He became just the third Laker to record four straight triple-doubles and surpassed John Stockton (1,504) for fifth place on the NBA's all-time list for regular season games played during the Nov. 16 win over New Orleans. Additionally, James eclipsed 57,000 career regular season minutes against San Antonio and is now just 216 minutes away from surpassing Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (57,446) for most all-time in NBA history.

REAVES RESURGENCE: Austin Reaves starts the season poised for a breakout year, with a specific emphasis on enhancing his on-ball skills and unlocking his defensive potential. Coming off a strong summer of development, Coach Redick is committed to adding new dimensions to Reaves' game. Already known for his offensive expertise, Reaves has also shown potential of becoming a disruptive defender. With the coaching staff pushing him to elevate on both ends of the floor, Reaves is ready to embrace a larger role and establish himself as a double-edged force for the Lakers.

D'LOADING: D'Angelo Russell set a Lakers franchise record for most 3-pointers made in a single season with 226 in 2023-24, surpassing Nick Van Exel's 183 triples during the 1994-95 season. Russell became just the third player in NBA history to make 200+ 3-pointers (226 3PM), dish 400+ assists (482 AST) and shoot 40 percent (41.5% 3FG) or better from beyond the arc in a season, joining Stephen Curry and Damian Lillard. Russell began the 2024-25 season as a starter for the Lakers, but was moved to the second unit to provide a scoring punch off the bench.

MAX-IMIZED POTENTIAL: The Lakers re-signed guard Max Christie this past summer on July 6. In the 2023-24 season, the 21-year-old guard appeared in 67 games (seven starts), averaging 4.2 points (42.7 FG%, 35.6 3P%, 78.3 FT%) and 2.1 rebounds in 14.1 minutes. He recorded seven double-digit scoring games, including two with career-highs of 14 points. Under new head coach JJ Redick, he's expected to take on a bigger role, complementing LeBron James and Anthony Davis as a 3-and-D guard. This offseason, Christie emphasized the importance of confidence and mental focus in his development.

KNECHT 4: Through his first 13 NBA regular season games, rookie Dalton Knecht is averaging 11.3 points, 2.5 rebounds, 1.1 assists and 2.3 three-pointers per game on .523/.464/.923 shooting in 21.5 minutes. He posted 19 points in a win over Memphis, followed by 14 points in a victory over San Antonio. Knecht's breakout came at New Orleans, where he scored 27 points, 7 rebounds, and 2 steals. Knecht followed up that performance by scoring a career-high 37 points on 9-12 shooting from deep versus Utah. When playing 20+ minutes, he's averaging 18.3 points and 3.7 threes per game. Knecht made an immediate impact in the Lakers' Oct. 17 preseason game, scoring 35 points with 7 rebounds and 2 steals in a win at Phoenix. He scored 20 straight points in overtime, becoming the first Lakers rookie since 1996-97 to score 30+ points in a preseason game. The Lakers selected Knecht with the 17th pick in the 2024 NBA Draft after a stellar season at Tennessee, where he earned Consensus All-America First Team honors, averaging 21.7 points, 4.9 rebounds, and 1.8 assists.

REDICK'S NEW ROLE: The energy around the Los Angeles Lakers is palpable as Head Coach JJ Redick embarks on his first season at the helm, having been named the 29th head coach in franchise history June 20, 2024. After a standout 15-year NBA career and time as an ESPN analyst, Redick is bringing a fresh approach to the organization. Known for his sharpshooting—ranking 20th all-time in NBA history with 1,950 3-pointers made—his coaching philosophy focuses on purpose, collaboration, competitiveness and creativity. A two-time consensus first-team All-American and the 2006 Naismith Men's College Player of the Year at Duke, Redick is eager to leverage his experience to inspire the Lakers and continue fostering a winning culture. Redick's system emphasizes both on-ball and off-ball movement.

Cooper, a defensive anchor of the Lakers' '80s dynasty, was honored 34 years after his final NBA game. Cooper dedicated all 12 years of his NBA career to the Lakers, where his defensive ability defined the Showtime Lakers era. His skills contributed to the team's five NBA championships in the 1980s. An eight-time NBA All-Defensive player, Cooper earned First-Team honors five times and was named Defensive Player of the Year in 1987. The Hall of Fame ceremony was a celebration of legacy and family, with chants of "Cooooop!" echoing throughout the crowd. The late Jerry West, who was already inducted into the Hall of Fame as a player in 1980 and as a member of the 1960 U.S. Olympic team in 2010, was honored with his third enshrinement, honoring his contributions as a coach and front-office executive with the Lakers, Grizzlies, Warriors and Clippers. Cooper will have his No. 21 jersey retired on Jan. 13 at Crypto.com Arena.

GOLD STANDARD: LeBron James and Anthony Davis made their returns to the Olympic stage this summer in Paris, adding new layers to their already impressive legacies. James, now a four-time Olympian, cemented his place in history as one of only three American men to compete in four games. He heads into his unprecedented 22nd season as a three-time gold medalist. Davis, in his second Olympic appearance, showcased his world-class defense, leading Team USA in blocks with 1.5 blocks per game in 16.6 minutes and playing a crucial role in bringing home the gold. On the way to USA Men's Basketball's 17th gold medal and AD's second, the Brow had four blocks, the most in a gold medal game since 1984, when blocked shots began being kept as an official statistic at the Olympics. Both players now shift their focus back to the Lakers, ready to bring the same leadership and drive to the upcoming NBA season.

HOMETOWN HERO: This summer, Rui Hachimura joined Team Japan at the Olympics with a renewed spirit after his second season with the Los Angeles Lakers, marking another milestone in his journey as a trailblazer for Japanese basketball. After leading Japan's team through the unprecedented challenges of the Tokyo Games in 2021, his performance this summer in Paris carried deeper meaning, energized by the presence of fans and heightened global expectations. Although Japan did not medal, Hachimura's leadership solidified his role as a key figure for his country. With the 2028 Olympics set to be held in Los Angeles, Hachimura looks ahead to an opportunity where his two worlds—Japan and the Lakers—can come together on the biggest stage.

THE CALIFORNIA DESTINY: This season, the Lakers will unveil their City Edition uniform and court, presented by bibigo. "Lake Show", where LA culture meets Lakers Basketball, will be on exhibition later this season. Both the uniform and court, their first ever City Edition court, will debut in arena Nov. 21, versus the Orlando Magic.

JJ Redick enters his first season as head coach of the Los Angeles Lakers. The 40-year-old was hired on June 20, 2024, as the 29th head coach in Lakers history and the 25th of the Los Angeles era.

It marks Redick’s first coaching role following an impressive 15-year NBA playing career. From 2006-21, the former guard appeared in 940 career regular season games (488 starts) suiting up for Dallas, New Orleans, Philadelphia, LA Clippers, Milwaukee and Orlando. Overall, Redick averaged 12.8 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists in 25.5 minutes per game. Known for his shooting prowess, Redick was a career 41.5-percent shooter from long distance and his 1,950 made 3-pointers still stand 20th all-time in NBA history.

In his 15 NBA seasons, Redick was part of 14 teams that advanced to the playoffs. In 110 postseason games (70 starts), he averaged 10.9 points, 1.6 rebounds and 1.6 assists with the Magic, Bucks, Clippers and 76ers.

Quickly following his retirement from the league Sept. 21, 2021, Redick was hired by ESPN as a game analyst and was eventually promoted to the network’s lead broadcast team by the end of the 2023-24 season. In June of 2024, Redick called the NBA Finals alongside colleagues Mike Breen and Doris Burke. Redick is a co-founder of ThreeFourTwo Productions where he co-hosted two popular podcasts, including “Mind the Game,” alongside Lakers star LeBron James as well as “The Old Man and the Three.”

Selected No. 11 overall in the 2006 NBA Draft by the Magic, Redick played four collegiate seasons (2002-06) for Duke University, averaging 19.9 points, 2.7 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.1 steals in 34.0 minutes over 139 games for the Blue Devils. Redick was a two-time consensus first-team All-American and was named the 2006 Naismith Men’s College Player of the Year. Redick, who remains the school’s all-time leading scorer, had his No. 4 jersey retired Feb. 4, 2007. The university also announced that Redick will be inducted into the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame in 2024. Redick chose Duke after a standout career at Cave Spring High School in Roanoke, Va., where he was a McDonald’s All-American as a senior.

Redick and his wife, Chelsea, have two sons, Knox and Kai.
