He recorded three straight triple-doubles from Nov. 4-6, tied with Grant Hill (April 11-14, 1997) as the only players to post three in a row in franchise history. It was the fifth of Cunningham's career, moving him to a tie with Isiah Thomas for the second-most in franchise history. Three-pronged production is nothing new for Detroit's cornerstone; Cunningham is one of 10 players in NBA history to average at least 20.0 points, 6.0 assists and 5.0 rebounds in their career, joining Jerry West, Oscar Robertson, Larry Bird, LeBron James, Russell Westbrook, James Harden, Nikola Jokic, Luka Doncic and LaMelo Ball (see tables on next page).

Jalen Duren ranks 3rd in the NBA in with a .680 FG% this season (min. 120 FGA). He ranks T-12th with 70 offensive rebounds, 20th with 205 total boards and 6th with 50 dunks. Last season, he became the first Piston to average at least 13.0 PTS, 11.0 REB and 2.0 AST on .600 FG% or better.

GLASS CLEANER: Jalen Duren ranks top-10 in the NBA in total rebounds and offensive rebounds this season. He owns the single-game high in the NBA this season of 22 boards vs. Chicago (tied with Karl Anthony-Towns, 22 vs ORL on 12/15/24), which included a career-high 12 offensive rebounds -- the most by a Piston since Andre Drummond in 2015 and tied as the 5th-most in franchise history. Since entering the league in 2022-23, Duren ranks 14th in the NBA in total rebounds and 9th in offensive boards.

EASY BUCKETS: Not just a dominant rebounder, Duren has been one of the most efficient scorers to begin a career in league and franchise history. He led the Pistons last season by shooting 61.9% from the floor, just a hair behind Andre Drummond's franchise record of 62.3% from 2013-14. Duren turned in an even higher 64.8% mark from the floor his rookie season, but fell shy of qualifying as an official franchise leader (made 258 FG, need 300 FGM in a season to qualify). All told, with a .631 FG% through his first two seasons, he led all players in NBA history in field goal percentage to begin a career, minimum 600 FGM, and ranks second through three seasons (see table to bottom right). Feeding his high shooting percentage, Duren ranked 8th in the NBA with 153 dunks his rookie season and ranked 9th with 156 last year.

Simone Fontecchio scored a season-high 18 points at Memphis (11/27) by taking and making his most field goals (7-of-9) and 3-pointers (3-of-5) of the season. He also grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds vs PHI (11/30), his first career instance in double-figures on the glass.

FITTING RIGHT IN: After being acquired from the Utah Jazz on Feb. 7 for Kevin Knox, the rights to Gabriele Procida and a 2024 second-round pick, Fontecchio came out firing in his first game as a Piston, scoring 20 points with a T-career-high nine rebounds, one assist and one steal against the L.A. Clippers (2/10). It was the eighth-most points by a player in their Pistons debut in the past 25 seasons (since 1998-99), and joined Blake Griffin (Feb. 1, 2018) as the only Piston to add at least nine rebounds in their debut as well. Fontecchio attempted 19 field goals in 32 minutes played, including 10 shots in his first 10 minutes, tied with Marcus Morris (Oct. 27, 2015) as the most attempted field goals in a Pistons debut since Rip Hamilton (22 on Oct. 30, 2002). Fontecchio scored 247 points as a Piston in 2023-24, his most over any career 16-game span.

CAREER NIGHT: On March 9, 2024, against Dallas, Fontecchio posted a career-high 27 points with four rebounds, two assists and one steal in 32 minutes off the bench. It was his most points in any professional competition since scoring 30 for Team Italy against Serbia in the 2023 FIBA World Cup on Sept. 1, 2023.

IT'S IN HIS BLOOD: Fontecchio's mother, Mali Pomilio, played basketball for the Italian National Team from 1983-89 and won two European titles for AS Vicenza...His grandfather, Vittorio Pomilio, played for the Italian National Team from 1957-60...Fontecchio's father, Daniele, was a professional Italian hurdler who won silver in the 60 meter hurdles at the 1986 European Indoor Championships and in the 110 meter hurdles at the 1985 European Cup, along with 10 national championships at the Italian individual senior level.

INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN: One of three active NBA players born in Italy (Reggie Jackson, Tristan Vukcevic [G League]) and just one of 12 Italian-born players in NBA history, Fontecchio is an active member of the Italian National Basketball team. In the 2023 FIBA World Cup, he led the team with 18.0 points and 28.9 minutes across seven games to go with 5.6 rebounds and 1.4 assists en route to a quarterfinals appearance. He led the Italians in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics as well with 19.3 points and 30.3 minutes with 3.0 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.5 steals across four games in another quarterfinals appearance.

Tim Hardaway Jr. has made 200+ 3-pointers in four of the past five seasons and his 211 3PM last season would have tied the Detroit franchise record (Saddiq Bey, 2021-22).

DOWNTOWN DALLAS: Over the past five seasons (since 2019-20), Hardaway Jr. ranks 12th in the NBA in 3-pointers made, two spots behind teammate Malik Beasley in that span. He has made at least 200 3-pointers in four of those five seasons, all of which came as a member of the Mavericks, leaving him fourth on Dallas' all-time 3-pointers made list with 981. All four of his seasons with 200+ 3-pointers made in Dallas (2019-20, 2020-21, 2022-23, 2023-24) represent the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th-most triples made in a single season in Mavericks franchise history.

PLAYOFF EXPERIENCE: Hardaway Jr.'s run to the 2024 NBA Finals with Dallas was his fifth career playoff appearance and third with the Mavericks. His first two appearances were in back-to-back seasons with the Atlanta Hawks in 2015-17; he averaged just 9.7 minutes in Atlanta's second-round exit in 2016 and earned a starting role in 2017, where he posted 12.8 points in Atlanta's first-round loss. He returned to the postseason five years later with Dallas in 2019-20 and averaged a playoff career-high 17.8 points in six games. He then averaged 17.0 points in Dallas' first-round loss in 2020-21 with a playoff career-high 40.4% from deep. Dallas' 2023-24 playoff run was his second time advancing past the first round in five tries, and he shot 35.1% from deep for the Mavericks across 14 games.

FAMILY BUSINESS: Son of NBA Hall-of-Famer Tim Hardaway, the Hardaways are one of 105 father-son duos to play in the NBA (including fathers with multiple sons that have made the league). Both first-round draft picks, Tim Sr. was drafted 14th overall by Golden State out of UTEP in 1989 while Tim Jr. was taken 24th overall by New York out of Michigan in 2013. Tim Sr. went on to play 867 games over his 13-year HoF career and wore No. 10 with the Dallas Mavericks in 2001-02. Tim Jr. has played in 736 games across his 11-year career and also wore No. 10 with Dallas in 2023-24; both father and son played with NBA Hall of Famer Dirk Nowitzki during their time as a Maverick.

Tim Hardaway Jr. wore #10 for Dallas in 2023-24 and was teammates with Dirk Nowitzki in 2018-19

Tobias Harris is averaging a career-high 0.8 blocks and his 6.9 rebounds per game are his most since 2019-20. He has grabbed at least seven rebounds in 15-of-25 games, has a block in 15 and 10+ points in 19.

STEADY CONTRIBUTIONS: Harris scored a season-high 26 points on 6-of-9 3FG with eight rebounds, two assists and one steal on Nov. 21 at Charlotte. It highlighted a run of six consecutive games with double-digit scoring and at least seven boards in five of them, where he averaged 15.5 points, 7.5 rebounds and 2.8 assists on 44.8% from deep in that span.

Harris has blocked 21 shots so far, the third-most on the team and the most through his first 25 games of any career season.

IRON MAN: Harris appeared in and started 70 games for the 76ers last season, his third consecutive season with at least 70 games played and the eighth of his past nine campaigns. This included tying the NBA lead with 82 games played in 2016-17 and 2018-19. He only missed more than three games in a row once in that span, when he missed six straight contests early in the 2021-22 season. In that span he also started all 57 playoff games for Philadelphia and averaged 37.1 minutes per game. Over these past nine seasons (since 2015-16), Harris ranks third in the NBA in games played, games started and minutes played. Now, in year 14, Harris ranks 38th in the NBA in total minutes played.

ALL-AROUND VETERAN: Harris played in his 900th career NBA game on Oct. 26, 2024 against Boston and became one of 18 players in NBA history with averages of 16.0 points and 6.0 rebounds on .360 3PT% or better. He is one of six active players to reach such benchmarks, joining James Harden, Kevin Durant, Jrue Holiday, Stephen Curry and Kevin Love. Harris is one of eight active players with 14,000 career points, 5,000 rebounds and 1,000 3-pointers (James, Durant, Harden, Westbrook, Paul, George, Love).

AS A PISTON: Detroit first welcomed Harris as a Piston at the trade deadline in 2016, acquiring him from Orlando in exchange for Ersan Ilyasova and Brandon Jennings. He made an instant impact in Motor City, ranking second on the team in points and rebounds over the final 28 games of the 2015-16 season for Detroit after the trade. The team went 17-11 in that stretch to power themselves to a playoff appearance, where they fell in the first round to Cleveland. He then led Detroit with 1,321 total points (16.1 per game) across 82 games in 2016-17 and was traded to the L.A. Clippers in January of the 2017-18 season for Blake Griffin, who led Detroit in scoring en route to their most recent playoff appearance in 2018-19.

As an 18-year-old last season, Ron Holland II led the G League Ignite in scoring and steals, turning in 16 20-point games with a season-high 32 vs. Stockton (12/1/23). He was the No. 2 overall recruit in the ESPN Class of 2023 and named the 2022-23 Gatorade Texas Player of the Year. He averaged 19.5 points, 6.7 rebounds, 3.1 assists and 2.4 steals across 29 games in the G League last season. He earned his first NBA start on Nov. 13 at MIL.

WELCOME TO THE NBA: Ron Holland had the biggest game of his rookie season on Dec. 12 against Boston, where he scored a career-high 26 points on 11-of-14 from the floor (also career-bests) with two 3-pointers, two free throws and three rebounds. It was his first time eclipsing 20 points and fifth time scoring in double-digits. He more than doubled his previous season high of five FGM, which he had done twice. Holland exploded for 20 points on 8-of-10 shooting in the fourth quarter alone, which included 10 straight points in two minutes in the final frame. It was the most points scored in a quarter by any Piston this season, the 3rd-most in a quarter off the bench in franchise history and the most in any quarter by a Detroit rookie since quarter data tracking became available in 1997-98.

SUMMER LEAGUE SCORER: In his first opportunity to don a Pistons uniform at the 2K25 Las Vegas Summer League, Holland led Detroit in points per game and increased his scoring output in each of his four contests (see table below). He scored 15 points against Philadelphia in his first game in the desert and followed it with 17 points against the Chicago Bulls and his former G League Ignite teammate Matas Buzelis (selected 11th overall by Chicago), and added a highlight transition dunk over Henri Drell. Holland added 20 points against New York, 10 of which came during a 21-9 run as the Pistons stormed back in a fourth quarter comeback effort, and finished with 23 points and three steals in the finale against Utah. Detroit's No. 5 overall selection averaged 18.8 points – 13th among players that played in at least two games – 6.5 rebounds, 2.3 assists, 1.5 rebounds and 1.0 blocks in Vegas.

Since being drafted 5th overall in 2022, Ivey leads the Pistons in games played and leads his draft class in career assists. This season, he ranks second on the team in points (career-high) and assists per game and leads the team with a career-high 1.0 steals per game.

FLAIR FOR THE DRAMATIC: Including his game-winning baseline running floater at the buzzer to defeat Toronto (11/26, pictured to the right), Ivey has been one of the best in the NBA at the end of quarters this season, and ranks third in the league with eight total field goals made in the final 10 seconds of any quarter this season (two have come in Q4 or OT):

THIRD YEAR LEAP: Ivey has elevated his offensive game in campaign No. 3, averaging career highs in scoring and shooting numbers so far this season. He has shown an increase in offensive aggression, scoring in double-figures with at least 13 field goals attempted in 17-of-21 games this season and at least five 3-pointers attempted 12 times. His increase in opportunity has led to an increase in production, as he is averaging career-highs in points and shooting percentages while attempting more shots than in either of his first two seasons (see table below).

Ausar Thompson led the Pistons with 68 steals and 59 blocks last season, joining Andre Drummond (5x, 2015-20) and Ben Wallace (6x, 2000-06) as the only players to lead the Pistons in both categories in a single season. He was the fourth Detroit rookie to average at least 1.0 STL and 0.9 BLK.

WELCOME BACK!: Thompson returned to an NBA court on Nov. 25 vs. Toronto, his first action since March 9, 2024. He scored five points with three rebounds and four assists in 16 minutes of action in Detroit's buzzer-beating victory.

STOCK MARKET: Thompson led the Pistons in steals (68) and blocks (59), becoming the first Piston to average 1.0 steals and 0.9 blocks per game since Andre Drummond, who did so in five consecutive seasons from 2015-20. He became just the fourth Detroit rookie to do so, joining Drummond (2012-13), Grant Hill (1994-95) and Terry Tyler (1978-79). Thompson was the third Piston to lead the team in both steals and blocks in a single season, joining Drummond (5x, 2015-20) and Ben Wallace (6x, 2000-06).

SWIPER: Thompson recorded a steal in 12 consecutive games from Jan. 24 to Feb. 22 (1.6 steals per game), the longest streak by a rookie last season and the third-longest by a rookie in franchise history. He collected a career-high five steals against Cleveland on March 1, the most by a Piston this season and the sixth-most by a rookie in franchise history.

ATTACK THE GLASS: An undersized force crashing the boards, Thompson ranked fourth among rookies 129 offensive rebounds, which was the third-most the NBA among players 6'7" or shorter (Saddiq Bey, Scottie Barnes) at the time of his injury.

ALL-AROUND PRODUCTION: Despite his season being cut short due to injury, Thompson put together one of the most well-rounded debut campaigns in NBA history. He played in every game up to being shut down for the season with averages of 8.8 points, 6.4 rebounds, 1.9 assists, 1.1 steals and 0.9 blocks on .483 FG%. As per the graphic on the right, he became one of 15 players in NBA history to record at least 550 points, 400 rebounds, 120 assists, 65 steals and 55 blocks through their first 63 career games, and he joined Victor Wembanyama and Ben Simmons as the only players to do so since 2000-01. The full list of players includes Thompson, Wembanyama, Kenyon Martin, Lamar Odom, Paul Pierce, Grant Hill, Chris Webber, Christian Laettner, Lionel Simmons, David Robinson, Michael Jordan, Charles Barkley, Marques Johnson, Alvan Adams and Bill Walton.

Through 69 career games, Thompson became one of 15 players in NBA history to record at least:

Prior to joining the Pistons, Bickerstaff was the head coach of the Cleveland Cavaliers from 2020-2024. Last season under Bickerstaff, the Cavaliers' defense ranked seventh in both points allowed (110.2) and defensive rating (112.1) during the regular season. During the 2022-23 season, Bickerstaff led the Cavaliers to the franchise's first 51-plus win season since 2016-17 and featured a defense that ranked first in the NBA in points allowed (106.9) and defensive rating (109.9), while being one of only three NBA teams to finish Top-10 in both offensive and defensive rating (Boston and Philadelphia). Before being promoted to head coach in Cleveland in February 2020, Bickerstaff was named associate head coach for the Cavaliers under John Beilein prior to the 2019-20 season.

Before his time in Cleveland, Bickerstaff served as the associate head coach for the Memphis Grizzlies under David Fizdale during the 2016-17 season. He took over as head coach for the Grizzlies from 2017 to 2019. Bickerstaff was tasked with transitioning the Grizzlies from the "Grit-and-Grind" era led by veterans Marc Gasol and Mike Conley to a new era led by Jaren Jackson Jr. In Bickerstaff's first full season as head coach (2018-19), the Grizzlies' defense improved year-over-year from 26th to ninth in defensive rating and from 13th to third in points per game.

Bickerstaff spent five seasons with the Houston Rockets as assistant coach from 2011 to 2015. He was named interim head coach of the Rockets during the 2015-16 season. Bickerstaff took over for Kevin McHale after 11 games of the 2015-16 season and finished the season 37-34 while qualifying for the NBA Playoffs. In four seasons with Bickerstaff as an assistant coach (2011-15), the Rockets amassed a 189-123 (.606) record while making three playoff appearances and one Western Conference Finals appearance.

Bickerstaff also spent four seasons (2007-11) as an assistant with the Minnesota Timberwolves under Randy Whitman (2007-09) and Kurt Rambis (2009-11). He began his coaching career with the Charlotte Bobcats (2004-07) as an assistant coach alongside his father, Bernie Bickerstaff, becoming the youngest assistant coach in the NBA at the age of 24.

Bickerstaff served as director of operations for the University of Minnesota's men's basketball program, overseeing all administrative areas of the program and assisting the coaching staff with recruiting, scouting and coaching. He played two collegiate seasons (1999-2001) with the Golden Gophers and two years at Oregon State University, where he was the youngest Division I player as a 17-year-old freshman.

A native of Denver, CO, Bickerstaff and his wife Nikki have three children: Blair, Blakely and Blade.
