BRAUN BALLIN

Christian Braun has done everything the Nuggets have needed from him on the offensive side of the ball this season and he continues to play his best basketball as of late. Braun stepped back into the starting lineup at Charlotte on 2/1 and hit the ground running. He finished with 24 points (19 in the first half), a career-high tying 11 rebounds, two assists and two steals in 38 minutes to help the Nuggets win 107-104.

Braun has scored 20+ points in six of the last 10 games including a career-high 28 points at CHI on 1/27. He has also shot 50%+ from the field in each of those 10 games. In that 10-game stretch from 1/15-2/1, Braun is averaging 18.5 points, 5.2 rebounds and 1.8 assists while shooting 64.3% from the field and 48.3% from three in 30.5 minutes.

SNAPPED THE STREAK

After winning four straight games before their five-game road trip, the Nuggets hit a minor speed bump away from home, dropping the first three games of the trip to Minnesota, Chicago and New York. However, Denver bounced back on the first night of a back-to-back and took down the 76ers 137-134 on 1/31. Jamal Murray led the way, posting 31 points on 12-22 shooting, 11 assists and six rebounds in 40 minutes for his fourth double-double of the season and fourth time scoring 30+ points in the last month. Nikola Jokic was able to take over late, scoring 11 of his 28 points in the final two minutes to help seal the victory, the big man also added 13 assists and nine rebounds.

The Nuggets shot 65.9% from the field, the fourth highest FG% in team history. It was also just the second time in the NBA in the last 365 days that a team shot that high, with the last being Denver vs. Utah on 3/9/24 (66.3%).

FINDING THEIR GROOVE

Denver is playing their best basketball of the season as of late and that continued at home against the Sixers on 1/21. The Nuggets cruised to another blowout victory, winning 144-109, extending their winning streak to three games. It also marked the Nuggets eighth win in their last 10 games with all those wins coming by double digits. A few more highlights from the win:

- Denver tied its season-high in points (144), getting their biggest win ever against the 76ers ... The Nuggets also set a new bench points season-high (58) and secured the largest margin of victory this season (+35).
- Julian Strawther tallied a career-high 23 points (8-14 FG, 5-9 3FG, 2-2 FT), three rebounds, and two assists in 26 minutes ... The Nuggets are 11-4 this season when he plays 25+ minutes.
- Christian Braun finished with 20 points (8-11 FG, 4-5 FT), two rebounds, two assists and one steal in 25 minutes ... It marks the second time in his career he's finished back-to-back games with 20+ points.
- The Nuggets finished with a season-high 77 points in the first half ... They scored 117+ points through the first three quarters for the ninth time in team history and just the second time since 1991.
- Denver's 39 fastbreak points mark the most by the Nuggets in 15 years (also finished with 39 on 2/25/2010 vs. Warriors) ... Denver's 19 fastbreak points in the first quarter tied for the most in the NBA in any quarter this season

SWEPT THE FLORIDA SWING

After a quick home game in Denver on 1/15, the Nuggets headed back on the road to Florida for matchups against the Heat and Magic. Denver was able to grab wins in both games, beating the Heat 133-113 on 1/17 and followed that up with another victory, taking down the Magic 113-110 on 1/19.

The Nuggets have now won six straight road games and nine of their last 11 road games overall. Also, all six of those wins have come by double digits and Denver has scored 110+ points in each victory.

2 FOR 2 IN DALLAS

The Nuggets had an extended stay in Dallas, spending four days in the city as they took on the Mavericks for two straight games. Denver handled their business, sweeping the trip after a convincing 118-99 win on 1/14. From the fourth quarter of their first game Sunday through the first quarter on Tuesday night, the Nuggets shot a combined 28-47 FG and 9-18 3pt-FG, while the Mavericks shot 13-44 FG and 0-16 3pt-FG. Denver outscored Dallas 69-33 in those two quarters.

Jamal Murray was the story of the night for the Nuggets as he was red hot from the opening tip. Murray posted 32 points in the first half, the most he has ever scored in an opening half and joins Jokic, Allen Iverson and Nick Van Exel as the only Nuggets players to post 30+ points in a first half in the play-by-play era (1996-97). He finished with a season-high 45 points on 18-26 shooting, six assists and two rebounds in 37 minutes, marking his fifth career regular season game posting 40+ points.

HISTORY MADE

The duo of Russell Westbrook and Nikola Jokic has proven to be lethal multiple times this season and Friday night at home against Brooklyn was another example. The combo propelled the Nuggets to another home victory, this one coming in blowout fashion 124-105. Westbrook finished with 25 points on 8-17 shooting, 11 rebounds and 10 assists in 36 minutes for his 202nd career triple double. And after missing two games, Nikola Jokic didn't miss a beat, posting 35 points, 15 assists, 12 rebounds and four steals in 38 minutes for his 145th career triple double and NBA leading 15th of the season.

It is the second time this season (all in a 12-day span) that Westbrook and Jokic both posted a triple double in the same game, making it the first time in NBA history that teammates have done that multiple times in a season. Before this season, there had only been 14 occurrences in NBA history where teammates both recorded a triple double in a game.

NUGGETS NOTES

WIRE-TO-WIRE WIN

The Nuggets, on the second night of a back-to-back, missing Nikola Jokic, took on the Clippers at home on 1/8 and had multiple players step up in the moment to win in blowout fashion 126-103. Denver improved to 8-0 this season when playing the second game of a back-to-back and now are 11-0 dating back to last season. A few more notes from the win:

- Jamal Murray finished with a team-high 21 points (7-13 FG, 4-6 3FG, 3-3 FT), three rebounds, nine assists, one steal, and one block in 34 minutes and +24 ... It marks his fourth game this season with a +20 or better ... Last season, he finished five games with a +20 or better.
- The Nuggets are 11-0 this season when ahead at the start of the third quarter and 7-0 at home in those games.
- Denver finished with their fourth wire-to-wire win of the year ... It marks the second time this season Denver outscored their opponent in all four quarters (also vs. Suns on 12/23/24) ... The Nuggets scored 120+ points for the 23rd time this season, the most in the NBA.

ASSIST MACHINE

Moving the basketball is the key to the Nuggets offense and that was on full display in front of a sold-out Ball Arena crowd on 1/1. The Nuggets used a big second half to cruise to a 139-120 victory over the Hawks, moving their record to 10-5 at home. Denver is the only team in the NBA this season to score 130+ points in four or more consecutive games and it is just the fourth time it has occurred in NBA franchise history. They now have nine games this season scoring 130+ points (8-1), trailing only Memphis for most such games (10).

The story of the night was the assist numbers for Denver, finishing with 44 on 53 made field goals. It set a new season-high in assists and they became the second team this season to post 44+ assists in a game (New York tallied 45 vs. Denver on 11/25). So far, through 32 games, Denver is averaging an NBA leading 31.7 assists per game, the current NBA record is held by the 1984-85 Los Angeles Lakers, finishing 82 games with 31.4 apg.

TRIPLE DOUBLES ALL AROUND

It was Murray's first 30-point game of the season and his 200th career game with 20+ points. He is just the sixth player in franchise history to eclipse 200+ games with 20+ points, joining David Thompson (284), Dan Issel (399), Nikola Jokic (402), Carmelo Anthony (423), and Alex English (658). HEAD COACH MICHAEL MALONE

Michael Malone enters his 10th season as head coach of the Denver Nuggets. He was named the 16th head coach in Denver's NBA franchise history on June 15, 2015. He is now the fourth longest tenured coach in the NBA and currently ranks second all-time amongst Nuggets head coaches with 424 wins.

Last season saw Coach Malone led the Nuggets to a 57-25 record, tying the franchise record for most wins in a season. They clinched the number two overall seed in the Western Conference and playoff berth for the sixth straight year. Malone has helped lead the Nuggets to at least one playoff series victory in five of the last six seasons. Since 2018-19, Denver has nine playoff series victories, which doubles the franchise total for the previous 32 years. Malone has totaled 44 postseason wins, ranking him first all-time in franchise history for most playoff victories passing Doug Moe with 24.

Since Malone took over prior to the 2015-16 season, the Nuggets have seen the postseason on six occasions including an NBA Championship 2023 and two Western Conference Finals. The Nuggets are also second in the NBA, trailing only the Milwaukee Bucks for the most combined regular season and postseason wins in a six-year span with 342.

Additionally, based on winning percentage, Malone has overseen five of the top ten seasons in NBA franchise history.

Malone has 463 victories as an NBA head coach and possesses over 27 years of coaching experience, 23 coming in the NBA with six different teams – New York, Cleveland, New Orleans, Golden State, Sacramento, and Denver. The teams that Malone has been a member of the coaching staff have amassed 14 playoff appearances, including two NBA Finals showing and four conference finals appearances. Malone and his staff have also been selected to coach two All-Star games, most recently in 2023 where he coached Team LeBron in Salt Lake City, UT, falling to Team Giannis 184-175.

Before joining the Nuggets, Malone served as the head coach of the Sacramento Kings for two seasons. Before his time with the Kings, Malone was the lead assistant for the Golden State Warriors under Mark Jackson from 2011-13 where they clinched a postseason berth in 2013, their first since 2007. Prior to Golden State, Malone worked as the lead assistant to Monty Williams in New Orleans and helped the Hornets achieve a 46-36 record and a trip to the 2011 NBA Playoffs. The Hornets were the most improved defensive team in the NBA in 2011, allowing a league-best 8.7 fewer points per game than in the previous campaign (94.0 ppg, after giving up 102.7 ppg in 2009-10).

Malone also served as an assistant coach under Mike Brown for the Cleveland Cavaliers for five seasons, during which the Cavs posted a 272-138 (.663) record, the third-best mark in the NBA over that span. The Cavaliers made five consecutive playoff appearances during Malone's time on the bench, reaching the NBA Finals in 2007 and the Eastern Conference Finals in 2009. In 2008-09, the Cavs notched a franchise record and NBA-best 66 wins, with Malone and the rest of the team's staff earning the right to coach the Eastern Conference All-Star squad. In 2009-10, the Cavaliers again captured the league's best regular season record with 61 wins.

Malone's NBA coaching career began with a four-season stint with the New York Knicks, where he originally joined Jeff Van Gundy's staff as a coaching associate in the summer of 2001, and was promoted to assistant coach in May 2003. Before joining the NBA, Malone coached seven years in the college ranks, with his last stop coming at Manhattan College where he was the lead assistant. During the 1998-99 season Malone worked at the University of Virginia as its director of men's basketball administration. Malone also spent three seasons (1995-96 – 1997-98) at Providence College under New York Basketball Hall of Fame coach Pete Gillen after beginning his coaching career working for Greg Kampe at Oakland University in Michigan.

Malone is a three-time participant in the NBA's "Basketball Without Borders" program, having coached at the league's global outreach camps in Africa (2017), Puerto Rico (2006) and Argentina (2005). In 2017 Malone traveled to Johannesburg, South Africa where he spent a week coaching at the BWB camps and then served as an assistant coach for Team Africa, for the NBA Africa Game 2017. Malone also served as an assistant coach for the Canadian Men's Senior National Team for three years. He helped guide the Canadian team to a top-four finish in the 2009 FIBA Americas Championship in Puerto Rico, qualifying Canada for the 2010 World Championships.

A native of Queens, New York, Malone played college basketball at Loyola College in Maryland, where he graduated with a BA degree in 1994. He is a graduate of New Jersey's Seton Hall Prep where he played two years under Bob Farrell. Malone also played a season under Tom Blackburn at Worcester Academy (Mass.).

Michael is the son of longtime NBA coach Brendan Malone, who coached over 28 years in the league. He and his wife, Jocelyn, have two daughters, Caitlin and Bridget.
