Intuit Dome, Inglewood, CA

The LA Clippers won their ninth straight game at Intuit Dome (11/4 - 12/3) with a 127-105 victory over the Portland Trail Blazers on Tuesday. LA's streak is the longest active home winning streak among Western Conference teams. It's also the longest home winning streak in franchise history since a 10-game streak in 2019 from 11/7 - 12/17. Tuesday was just the second time this season that LA shot 50 percent or better from the field and 50 percent or better from three-point range in a single game (other: Nov. 11 at Oklahoma City). The Clippers improved to 8-1 (.889) in games where they shoot at least 40% or better from beyond the arc. LA also outscored Portland 16-4 (+12) in second chance points and 19-6 (+13) on the fast break. The Clippers were led by Norman Powell who poured in a game-high 30 points (11-15 FG, 5-7 3PT, 3-3 FT). It was Powell's 13th game of at least 20 points this season, after he recorded just 13 such games during the entire 2023-24 campaign. Other Clippers in double figures included James Harden (23 points), Amir Coffey (19 points), Derrick Jones Jr. (15 points) and Jordan Miller (14 points). Portland was led by Deandre Ayton (16 points), Deni Avdija (15 points) and Shaedon Sharpe (15 points). The Clippers will continue this four-game homestand (12/1 - 12/8), on the second night of a back-to-back tomorrow against Minnesota.
